

A1	Richard Leonard	Keynote presenter - see above
A2	John O'Connor	Keynote presenter - see above
A3	Manuel Beazley
A4	Rachel Marr & Felicity Crow	Rachel works at the Pompallier Diocesan Centre as a Pastoral Worker to the Catholic Deaf. Felicity is a sign language translator.
A5	Christine Smith	Christine has been a school principal, has worked for ERO and is currently Review and Development Officer for the Catholic Diocese of Auckland.
A6	Catherine Ryan	Catherine is Vicar for Education for the Catholic Dioces of Auckland. Previously she has been a teacher and school principal.
A7	Merv Duffy	Merv is a Marist priest, originally from Christchurch. He is acting principal and a Lecturer in theology at the Catholic Theological Institute. He completed a degree in Mathematics while studying for the priesthood and has taught in Secondary Schools. He completed his doctorate in Systematic Theology in Rome. Art, Archaeology and the Ecclesiology of the early Marist missionaries in the Pacific are abiding interests.
A8	Bruce Drysdale	Bruce is a florist, a former DRS, a chaplain for people rehabilitating from brain injury and a civil celebrant.
A9	Randall Ramos	Randall is the Coordinator of Liturgical Music at the Catholic Church of St. Joseph's Parish Takapuna, where he has served as a cantor, pianist and organist from the age of 16. He is currently completing a conjoint degree: Bachelor of Music in Popular Music and Bachelor of Commerce in Commercial Law & International Business at the University of Auckland. He also serves as part of the core team that runs Life Teen at St. Joseph's.
A9	Patrikk Colita	Patrick is a student at Auckland University studying chemistry. He is a musician and singer at Takapun Parish.
A10	Pam Wood	Pam Wood has had 14 years involvement in lay liturgical leadership within the St Paul's Rongopai Community, who practice a model of shared liturgical leadership. Pam has previously worked in the Diocese of Auckland in Religious Education and the Liturgy Centre, and spent 10 years on the Training Team in Dove Catholic Fellowship for Women. She follows many creative pursuits in her spare time.
A10	Brendan Bergin	Brendan Bergin is liturgist / lector at St Paul's Rongopai and the Cathedral of St Patrick and St Joseph. He co-mentors Directors of Religious Studies in Auckland Catholic schools and is enrolled in the Doctoral programme at Australian Catholic University (ACU). Brendan hails from the foothills of the Waitakere Ranges where he loves communing with nature, family and other interesting parties.
B1	Margaret Fitzpatrick	Margaret is a Religious Education Advisor for Primary Schools, for the Auckland Diocese. She has a Masters degree in Religious Education and has many years of teaching experience in primary, pre-school and secondary education. She has served on liturgy committees, facilitated Sacramental Programmes and chaired Parish Pastoral Councils.
B2	John O'Connor	See above, keynote presenter
B3	Bernard Kiely	A priest of the diocese of Auckland for 28 years, eighteen as pastor at St Patrick's Cathedral. Bernard has a passion for liturgy and believes that 'hospitality and beauty' go hand in hand as vital companions in the liturgical experience.
B4	Jane O'Carroll	Jane is a Marist sister, experienced Spiritual Director and Supervisor, and Retreat Director. She is currently Bishop's Pastoral Assistant and Vicar for Religious in the Catholic Diocese of Auckland. She has a background in teaching and leadership.
B5	Catherine Gibbs	Catherine is the administrative assistant with the National Liturgy Office based in Wellington. She brings wide experience from diverse sectors including teaching for the Catholic Institute, and education coordinator with Caritas Aotearoa New Zealand. She has worked in the teaching profession for most of her life including The Arts curriculum coordinator with the Ministry of Education, Music lecturer at the University of Waikato and Music and Arts adviser at Victoria University of Wellington. In this interactive

B6	Lorraine Elliott & Ann-Marie	Lorraine is Vicar for Social Impact and Communication for the Auckland Diocese. Ann-Marie is Manager of the Catholic Caring Foundation of the Auckland Diocese.
B7	Rocio Figueroa	Rocio is a lecturer in theology at the Catholic Theological Institute, Auckland. She specialises in issues related to woman's studies, and reciprocity between men and women. Her doctorate is from the Gregorian University in Rome. Among her achievements is her responsibility for the Women's section in the Pontifical Council of Laity, specifically creating networks between the different international catholic associations which promote the dignity and value of women.
B8	Michael Gielen	Michael is the Auxillary Bishop of Auckland. Previously he was Director of Formation at Holy Cross Seminary and prior to that was a priest of the Hamilton Diocese.
B9	Northcote Parish Adult format	The Northcote Parish Adult Formation Team
B99	Manuel Beazley
C1	Michael Gielen	Michael is the Auxillary Bishop of Auckland. Previously he was Director of Formation at Holy Cross Seminary and prior to that was a priest of the Hamilton Diocese.
C2	Sian Owen	Siân is a Sister of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart that has ministered in a number of education roles across Aotearoa New Zealand. She currently serves as leader of the Pastoral Services Group in the Catholic Diocese of Auckland.
C3	Lyn Smith	Lyn is an adviser for the Auckland Catholic Schools Office and a lecturer for the Catholic Institute.
C4
D1	ACYM; Joey, Rochelle, Felicity	Joey, Rochelle and Felicity are members of the Auckland Catholic Youth Ministry Team
D2	Michael Gielen	Michael is the Auxillary Bishop of Auckland. Previously he was Director of Formation at Holy Cross Seminary and prior to that was a priest of the Hamilton Diocese.
D3	Adriana Janus	I am a Spiritual Director and giver of retreats in the Ignatian tradition. My background is in various forms of pastoral work in parishes and Auckland Diocesan offices. Like many I came to New Zealand as a newly married girl from the Netherlands and I have proudly called New Zealand home for the last three decades or so.
D4	Chris Skinner	Chris is a Marist priest, singer, musician and composer, well known throughout Aotearoa New Zealand for his warm lyrical music.
D5	Connie and Tony Hassan	Connie and Tony are katiketa in the far north parish of Kaitaia. They have rich experience of sharing prayer with others, especially in times of need.
D6	Clare O'Connor	Clare O'Connor is a Cenacle Sister living in community on the Kapiti Coast. She is engaged in giving retreats and spiritual direction. Clare also enjoys music, quilting and gardening.
D7	Teresa Anderson	Teresa is a Sister of Mercy based in Auckland. She is involved in community projects and is a liturgy leader at St Paul's Rongopai.
D7	Brendan Bergin	Brendan Bergin is liturgist / lector at St Paul's Rongopai and the Cathedral of St Patrick and St Joseph. He co-mentors Directors of Religious Studies in Auckland Catholic schools and is enrolled in the Doctoral programme at Australian Catholic University (ACU). Brendan hails from the foothills of the Waitakere Ranges where he loves communing with nature, family and other interesting parties.
D8	Dianna Fouhy and Daughters	Dianna facilitates the Nga Parirau program for the Diocese of Auckland. She has had many years experience teaching and has been a DRS. Her daughters also bring a wealth of teaching experience.
D9	Lyn Smith	Lyn is an adviser for the Auckland Catholic Schools Office and a lecturer for the Catholic Institute.
D10	Judith Courtney	Judith is Coordinator of the Auckland Liturgy Centre, a musician, choir leader and formerly a teacher at secondary and primary schools.